

otiPulse
adds cashless to coin-op

Advanced cashless payment and management solution for coin-operated pulse machines otiPulse is a modular and cost-effective solution allowing coin-operated pulse machine operators to accept cashless payment, such as credit and debit cards and mobile payments, enabling operators to increase their income per machine.

Additionally, the solution turns the operators' business into a smart and connected one.

Public bathrooms

Air/Vacuum

Lockers

Massage chairs

Parking

Game & Amusement machines

Laundromats

Car wash

Photo booths

Dog wash

EV charging stations

Prize machines

Supported Applications:

Trademarks are the property of their respective owners

Features

- Can work with different types of pulse machines
- Remote machine configuration changes (e.g. price, pulse duration)
- Network connectivity – cellular and ethernet
- Remote terminal configuration updates
- Secured remote firmware updates
- Rechargeable battery power back-up

Cashless Readers

OTI's cashless readers provide an easy to integrate merchant services solution allowing operators to accept credit cards and mobile payments, including Apple Pay and Android Pay, with their unattended kiosks, gas stations, car washes, vacuums, etc.

Supported Applications:

Trademarks are the property of their respective owners